

ANTHONY S. BROADMAN

GALANDA BROADMAN

An Indian Country Law Firm

Galanda Broadman PLLC
8606 35th Avenue NE, Ste. L1
Seattle, WA 98115

Cell: (206) 321-2672
Fax: (206) 299-7690

E-mail: anthony@galandabroadman.com
Website: www.galandabroadman.com

Anthony's practice focuses on company-critical business litigation and representing tribal governments in public affairs, taxation, and economic development matters. He regularly consults with businesses and tribal governments regarding crisis response, risk management, taxation, and legislative strategy. Anthony has also defended businesses and governments in catastrophic injury lawsuits and claims and tried jury trials in state and federal court. A former newspaper reporter, Anthony is skilled at assisting organizations in responding to public and private crises. He was named to Rising Stars for 2010 by Washington Law & Politics magazine and in 2013-2018 by SuperLawyer magazine.

Anthony is a judge on the Tribal Court of Appeals for a northern Washington tribe. He is the past Chair of the Oregon State Bar Indian Law Section, past Chair of the Washington State Bar Association Administrative Law Section, and served as the Editor of the Indian Law Newsletter, published by the Washington State Bar Association Indian Law Section. Anthony formerly served on the Grace First Lutheran Church Council.

Personal:

In his free time, Anthony is an avid cyclist and skier. He enjoys spending time outdoors with his wife and daughters, and was born and raised in Visalia, California.

Representative Client Successes:

- Appeared as amicus curiae for a sovereign tribal government in a case fuel tax case before the Washington State Supreme Court, in which the Court affirmed a Treaty travel/trade right (Cougar Den v. Washington (Wash. 2017))
- Successfully defended 66 Grand Ronde Tribal Members from disenrollment (Alexander v. Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde (Grand Ronde Ct. App. 2016))
- Prevailed before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals against a county assessor who attempted to tax permanent improvements to Indian lands owned by a joint venture between a tribal government and a publicly traded company. Confederated Tribes of

ANTHONY S. BROADMAN, continued

the Chehalis Reservation v. Thurston County Board of Equalization, 724 F.3d 1153 (9th Cir. 2013)

- Negotiated all components of development of large California Tribal Casino
- Argued and obtained a preliminary injunction in U.S. District Court on behalf of a tribe, which prohibited the United States from permitting Hawaiian garbage to be imported into and dumped on Treaty-protected lands (E.D. Wash.)
- Obtained summary judgment dismissal of tortious interference claims based on use of individual Indian trust assets (E.D. Wash.)
- Obtained $500,000 breach-of-contract judgment for a publicly-traded company (King County Sup. Ct. 2008), and successfully defended appeal of same (Wash. App. Div. I)
- Successfully defended and settled a significant National Indian Gaming Commission Notice of Violation
- Successfully defended and settled several Washington State Gambling Commission violations, as well as Washington and Oregon tribal gaming commission violations
- Authored and shepherded several administrative rules through Washington State Gambling Commission rulemaking process, improving regulatory efficiency
- Successfully defended invalid property and excise taxation of open-space exempt land
- Negotiated various tribal construction agreements for contractors doing business on reservations
- Obtained a $26.6 million tribal tax-exempt bond allocation from Department of Treasury
- Negotiated gaming compact with governor of California
- Negotiated multi-million dollar sale of tribally-owned agricultural product manufacturing company to publicly-traded company
- Negotiated various tribal construction agreements for contractors doing business on reservations

Professional Experience:

2010 – Present	Galanda Broadman, Partner
2007 – 2010	Williams Kastner, Associate
2006	Skadden Arps, Summer Associate
2005	Coconino County Public Defender, Clerk
1999 – 2002, 2004	National Park Service, Trail Crew
2002 – 2004	Arizona Daily Star, Reporter
2001 – 2002	Viet Nam News, Sub-editor

Education:

The University of Arizona College of Law, J.D., magna cum laude, 2007

Princeton University, A.B. English, cum laude, 2001

ANTHONY S. BROADMAN, continued

Memberships:

Oregon State Bar Association

- Indian Law Section, Chair 2016
- Washington State Bar Association
- Administrative Law Section, Chair 2011-2012, Treasurer 2009-2011
- Indian Law Section, Trustee, 2009-2012

Admitted to Bar:

Chehalis Tribal Court

Grand Ronde

Klamath Tribal Court

Nooksack Tribal Court

Quinault Tribal Court

Suquamish Tribal Court

Tribal Court for the Confederated Tribes and Bands of the Yakama Nation

Winnebago Tribal Court

Nisqually Tribal Court

State of Washington

State of Oregon

U.S. District Court for the Western District of Washington

U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Washington

U.S. District Court for the District of Oregon

United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit

Recent Publications:

Indian Law Newsletter, Editor, Washington State Bar Association

“Flip the Rez Tax to Pump Money Into Indian Country”, Co-author, Indian Country Today Media Network, May 6, 2015

“Know Your Enemy: Local Taxation and Tax Agreements in Indian Country”, Seattle University American Indian Law Journal, Winter 2012

“Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals Weekly Roundup”, Indian Country Today Media Network, November 2, 2011

“At a Minimum: The Legal Case for Advisory MICS”, Casino Enterprise Management, October 2011

“Indian Self Governance And Bankruptcy: The Case for Tribal Law”, Casino Enterprise Management, February 2011

ANTHONY S. BROADMAN, continued

“Critical Legal Issues: Preparing for the Future,” Indian Gaming Magazine, June 2013

“The Arrival: Tribal Gaming, Nevada and the Future of Online Play,” Casino Enterprise Management, August 2012

“At a Minimum: The Legal Case for Advisory MICS,” Casino Enterprise Management, October 2011

“Indian Self Governance And Bankruptcy: The Case for Tribal Law,” Casino Enterprise Management, February 2011

“More Legal Challenges Ahead for Tribes in 2011,” Indian Gaming, January 2011

“Taxing Times in Native America,” WSBA Bar News, January 2011

“Washington State Outbids Betcha.com,” Gaming Law Review and Economics, November 2010

“In Defense of the Nation: Why Tribes Should Adopt Tort Claim Ordinances,” Indian Gaming, September 2010

“Gaming Transactions in Indian Country: A Rough Guide for Rough Times,” Casino Enterprise Management, April 2010

Co-Author, “The Law of Business in Indian Country,” Law Trends & News, American Bar Association, Winter 2009.

Recent Presentations

Speaker, Indian Gaming Taxation, 12th Annual Gaming Law Summit, December 11, 2014

Co-Chair, Tribal Revenue Development Through Taxation, November 6, 2013

Program Co-Chair, “Tribal Revenue Development Through Taxation,” Seattle, WA, November 2013.

“Tribal Internet Gaming Outlook,” 10th Annual Northwest Gaming Law Summit, Seattle, WA, December 2012.

“Tribal Taxation Update,” 2nd Annual Tribal Tax & Business Development Seminar, Portland, OR, November 2012.

“Tribal Taxation Update,” 7th Annual Re-Emerging Northwest Tribal Economies Seminar, Tulalip, WA, August 2011.

ANTHONY S. BROADMAN, continued

“Tribal Gaming and Federal Regulation in the Obama Era,” 7th Annual Northwest Gaming Law Conference, December 2010.

“Tribal Taxation Update,” 6th Annual Re-Emerging Northwest Tribal Economies Seminar, Tulalip, WA, August 2010.

Co-Presenter, “Contracting in Indian Country,” 16th Annual Washington Construction Law Seminar, Seattle, WA, September, 2009.